

Remember Who We Are

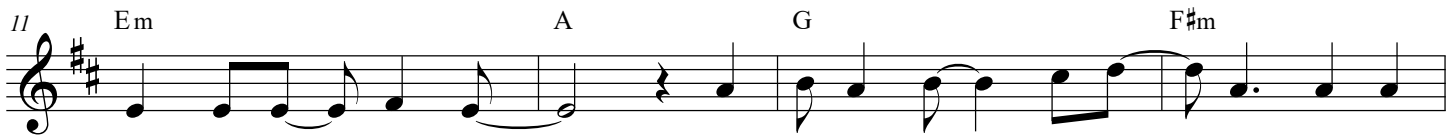

Rick Ellrod

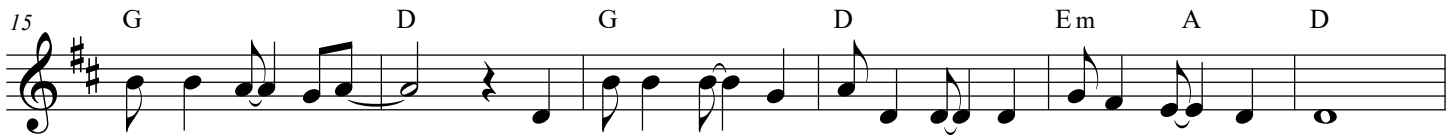

1. We don't bow to kings;

we don't wor-ship the wealth - y. When they gath-er pow - er to them - selves, we bring them to their knees. We give a hand to strang - ers, to the bat - tered and the lost; We'll give a chance to ev'-ry - one, what - ev - er seas they've crossed.

Refrain

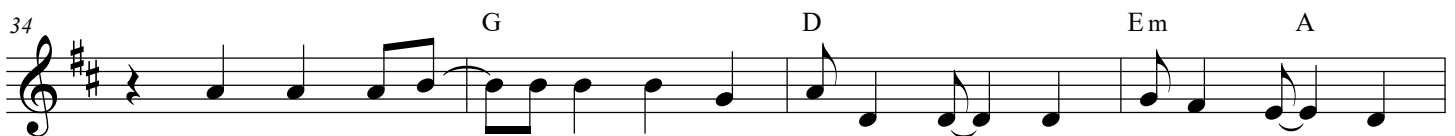

Re - - -

mem-ber who we and who we're called to be: A home for all who hon-or the flame of lib - er-ty;

We'll take back our flag and raise it for just - tice near and far:

We are Am - er - i - ca, ways fight-ing to be bet - ter than we

Remember Who We Are

38 G D G

are.

41 D D G D Bm

2. We had a king, — when Eng - land ruled our lands. We ov - er - threw the

47 D Em A G F#m

ty - rant, took our fate in our own hands; We made our way to - geth - er, thir - teen states, one com - mon rule: Of laws and not of per - sons, no more a ty - rant's tool. Re -

52 G D G D Em A D G A

59 D D G D Bm

- 3. In two World Wars we fought, com - ing to the aid of our friends, As al - lies, not to

65 D Em A G F#m

con - quer, to help and to — de - fend; Won re - spect for our de - vo - tion to the fall

Bridge

70 G D G D Em A D G A

— of free - dom's foes: All Fueh - rers or dic - ta - tors de - serve to be — de - posed. Re -

77 C G D G D C A

Yeah, we ain't per - fect, nev - er said — we are. We learn from our mis - takes, our sins, our scars: No

Remember Who We Are

85 C G Bm G hu-mans can__ be trust-ed to put them-selves a - bove The laws we made to keep us free,__ in the land__ we love._____

90 D G C

93 A D G D Bm
 __ 4.Some say we're en - slav-ers, rot-ten from__ the start; Some say they'll make us

99 D Em A G F#m
 great by build - ing walls a - round our hearts; But we're great when we__ live out the truth we've al - ways known: Do right by ev'-ry per-son, tear the ty - rant from his throne. Re

104 G D G D Em A D G A